THE COLUMNS 1953

Published Annually by the Students of Athens College

Athens, Alabama

Dedication

R. H. Richardson, Jr., a member of a family who for generations has been closely connected with Athens College; who, himself, was on the Board of Trustees until becoming Business Manager and Treasurer of Athens College; who is highly esteemed by the Boards of Trustees, the Administration and the Faculty, the Students, and the Citizens of Athens--to you, Mr. Richardson, we affectionately dedicate this, our 1953, edition of The Columns.

R. H. Richardson, Jr.

A Word from the Editor

Words cannot express my appreciation for the wholehearted cooperation I have received in helping to make the 1953 edition of The Columns a success. Without the cooperation of the Staff, the Student-body, and the Faculty, I could have done nothing.

This little book represents many hours of planning, work and headaches; but the experience I have gained, the people I have met, and the new friends I have made, compensate in full for the discouragements, worries, and the work which have entered into the production of the annual.

I am very grateful to Dr. Fairman, the faculty sponsor, for the generous help he has so freely given; and also to the advertisers for their assistance in helping to make our annual a reality.

It has been a privilege, a pleasure, and also an honor to have been entrusted with the responsibility of editing the 1953 Columns. There has been much time and thought given to the arrangement of this book. I sincerely hope you will find it interesting.

Billy Gene Bullington

Alma Mater

On Alabama's northern border,
Reared against the sky,

Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years roll by.

Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Conquer and prevail;

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Athens College, Hail!

Through the years we've learned to love her,
And we sing her praise;

For the pleasure she has shown us,
Through our college days.

Onword ever, be our watchword;
May we never fail;

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Athens College, Hail!
